

THE CHOICE Weekly News

October 22,
2008

Money Matters: A big thanks to all the families who have made timely payments of the Family Donation. The third installment of the contribution is due October 24th. Please send in your payment or contact Mr. Waldman.

Lumberjack 2.0: Thanks to all the families that came out to help cut, load, and stack wood! All your effort & enthusiasm is much appreciated! The second volunteer day is this Saturday October 25th from 8am to 3pm. We're meeting on the east side of the school building again. Parents and students will help cut, stack, and load wood. Trucks and trailers are also needed for wood deliveries. If you can't come help, please consider a monetary donation. Confirm with Boyd Brown if you are planning to attend.

Alumni Night: Former CHOICE students will be talking about their transition to high school and answering questions from the audience at Alumni Night. This is a great opportunity to get a feel for what the different high schools in Boulder and beyond have to offer and to hear first hand what it is like to make the move from middle school to high school. This year's Alumni Night is Thursday, November 6th at 6pm in the Platt Library. Families are highly encouraged to come with their burning questions for this "open forum."

Seeking Fundraiser Items: The Faculty Follies Silent Auction is held twice in the calendar year. Since we have already received very generous contributions for the March Silent Auction from local stores & businesses, we are now seeking items for the Fall Follies Fundraiser from other sources. If you would like to donate a specific item to help fill in the gaps for the CHOICE baskets, please email Leah Kahn at lkahn@hayneco.com to receive a list of what we're looking for. All money raised during the Follies Auction fundraiser benefits students in both the Traditional and CHOICE programs.

Community Service Opportunity: The Rocky Mountain Center for Musical Arts (RMCMA) is a non-profit music school in Lafayette. On Sat. Oct. 25, 2008, the school is holding its annual, Halloween themed "Perform-A-Thon", which is its only student-generated fundraiser for the year. The event is from 10am to 5pm on Saturday. They are in need of volunteers for the following activities:

- Friday, Oct. 24th, 4 pm until done
- Help with decorating the music hall
- Sat. Oct. 25th starting at 9:30 am
- Man the bake sale table
 - Man the registration table
 - Assist with carnival type games (starting at 11 am)
 - Come late and help with clean up (5 pm to 6)
 - They'd also love to have a face painting artist on hand!
