Two records look poised to fall, and Fairview carries the fastest times into three relay events and three individual events heading into today's opening round of the Boulder County Invitational girls swim meet.

The event begins with preliminary heats at 4:30 p.m. today and finishes with finals at 2 p.m. Saturday. All racing events are at the South Boulder Recreation Center.

Three swimmers carry top seeds into two different events.

Boulder sophomore Sophie Allen is seeded first in the 100-yard freestyle and the 100 backstroke.

Fairview senior Julie Giehl is the top seed in the 200 and 500 freestyle events.

Monarch freshman Whitney Dougherty is seeded first in the 200 IM and 100 backstroke.

Two BCI records look ready to fall.

Giehl could set a meet record in the 500 freestyle. Her best time this year was 5:02.32 and the meet record is 5:06.64, set by former Fairview star Sarah Fischer in 2004.

Fairview's 400 freestyle relay team enters the meet with a time of 3:40.54. The meet record is 3:43.04, also set by Fairview in 2004.

The Knights will be going for their 18th win in 18 BCI girls meets.
