

Student-Athlete of the Week
Jillian Smith, Fairview
The Denver Post

Jillian Smith (Fairview)

Height: 5-feet-9.

Weight: 135 pounds.

Age: 17. Born June 15, 1990, in Eugene, Ore.

High school sport: Swimming (100-yard breaststroke and butterfly).

Grade-point average: 4.55.

Class: Senior.

My favorite subject: Biochemistry. I want to stay in that combination.

My favorite athlete: Michael Phelps.

My favorite team: Oregon Ducks football.

What I listen to: All kinds.

The best thing on my training table: Noodles and ice cream.

Premeet ritual: I listen to pump-up music to get psyched and try to relax and stretch.

Time management tip: After school and practice, I go home, eat and do homework.

Planned career: Biomedical engineering. Will attend Washington University in St. Louis.

My family: Parents Paul and Mary, sisters Ellie and Lacey.

I would love to visit: New Zealand or Australia.

What I like most about high school sports: Our coach (Bob Smartt) is amazing.

What I like least about high school sports: There are so many good swimmers, but you can only put (a limited amount) in qualifying.