

War of 1812 Play

For the War of 1812 Play, next week, we would like the children to dress in simple costumes if possible. Below are some examples of costume ideas for the parts. Ask your child about their part and help them dress in the spirit of the time. Please do not purchase something specifically for this play, it is not necessary. Please have them wear their “costume” to school on Friday, November 6th.

Sailor: Plain white T-shirt, jeans or blue pants

British Soldier: red shirt and black pants

United States Soldier: blue shirt and pants (including Oliver Perry)

President Madison, Henry Clay, Andrew Jackson, John Calhoun, Francis Scott Key, and Dr. Beans should try to wear dress up clothes, a jacket, dress shirt and pants if possible.

Women in the play: long skirts and blouses, bonnets if possible

Narrators: dress up clothes

Thank you,

Suzanne and Martha
