

High Notes for Monday, Nov. 2, 2009

Hi, Band students and families,

Whew! All I can say is I'm glad the snow waited until the week after State. With all the quick changes, we got it all done. Our outdoor concessions parents really don't want to see any more hot chocolate for awhile, while our indoor concessions parents feel the same about bottled water. Extravaganza was amazing! Students, I hope you heard some of the compliments, because there were many!! And then there was the Halloween party. What an amazing haunted house Patricia Lucey and Mike Brashears had put together, complete with six "live (I think)" actors. Thank you very much for hosting the band.

Tomorrow, Tues, Nov 3- FBBO Parent meeting at 7 PM in the band room. (FBBO Board Meeting begins at 6 PM.) We will discuss an overview of the marching season-the good, the bad, and the ugly-and the ways we can improve next year's season and we will discuss the upcoming events and answer questions you have regarding concert band, etc. This meeting will not be combined with a Winter Drumline Parent Meeting. The date for this meeting has not yet been officially set.

Payback Books-a message from Liz Ryan.

Dear Band parents,

One of the Band's fund-raising items is the Boulder Payback Book, the perfect holiday gift for a babysitter, book-club host, personal trainer, cleaning person or dog-walker....a Boulder Payback Book is a purse-or-briefcase-sized coupon book stuffed full of fantastic dollars-off coupons for Boulder shops and restaurants like McGuckin's Hardware, Sunflower Market, Rio Grande restaurant, Ajuua!, South Side Walnut Cafe and many more. We are selling Payback Books now, the last chance to participate in one of our most lucrative fund-raising campaigns, well-timed before the holidays! Each Boulder Payback Book costs $20, of which $10 goes to the Fairview Marching Knights (and $4.00 of that into your own child's Band account). They nearly sell themselves, so please let your neighbors, workmates and friends know about them!

Your job is to pre-sell Payback books and collect checks and cash from your buyers. Contact me to set up a pick-up or delivery of your ordered Payback Books and to pick up the cash and checks from you. Don't wait to take orders! Payback Books make wonderful holiday gifts and stocking stuffers - Winter Park and Copper ski resort coupons are some of the many coupons inside (over $5000 of coupons for $20 - such a deal!).

Please write to me at liz@asklizryan.com. with questions -- thanks! We would love to see each Band family sell three Boulder Payback Books. If we can do that, we'll have added $3000 to the Band coffers (and defrayed $1200 in Band student fees.)

Thanks!

Liz Ryan
