

Senior Baby Pictures for the 2008-2009 Yearbook

YOURS TO KEEP

Note to Senior Parents: Parents of senior students may purchase space in a special section of the yearbook reserved for senior tributes. This form requires a separate check and may be turned in at registration or mailed to the address below.

The 2008-2009 Lance Yearbook is offering an incredible opportunity that your senior will never forget. This is a great way to embarrass your child, while at the same time honoring his/her accomplishments. Your senior will cherish this message and picture for years to come.

To include seniors' baby pictures in the yearbook, please fill out the form on the reverse. Please type or print clearly. Limit your message to 150 words or less (75 words or less for 1/8 page). If your message is longer we may have to cut it down. Don't forget to include a photo along with your message. Make sure all items you send are clearly marked with your senior's name; this includes the picture, message, attached form and check or cash.

Baby or childhood pictures are traditional, but current pictures are also acceptable. The yearbook staff will crop your pictures to fit the space. Please include a description of how you would like the picture cropped so we can include important parts of the photo.

If you wish to have your picture returned, please include a self-addressed, stamped envelope with the picture. Materials will be returned in the spring after the completion and delivery of the yearbook. We make no guarantees for your photos, so we advise you not to send originals of family heirlooms (many local film processors can make copies of prints at high quality for a reasonable cost). This is a first-come, first-served opportunity, so get your order in soon. We give no guarantees that your order will be in the yearbook after the set due date. We will, however, try to accommodate as many orders as possible.

The deadline for receiving pictures and messages is November 7, 2008.

Please return the order form with your photo and separate check made payable to Fairview High School: The Lance. Return at registration or mail to:

The Lance
Fairview High School
Business Manager
1515 Greenbriar Blvd.
Boulder, CO 80305

There also will be a drop-box for pictures this fall that will be located in the main office. It will be checked daily. All senior messages will be kept under wraps until the yearbook arrives, in order to surprise the seniors. Your participation will not only please your senior, but it will help make this yearbook an extra special memory!

Thank you for your support and interest!
