

GRAPHIC COMMUNICATIONS PROGRAM

A graphic of a handprint with fingers spread, where each finger and the palm are filled with different colors and patterns, including red, blue, green, and black.

Three Levels of Certification

- One-semester certificate
- One-year certificate
- Two-year certificate

Receive Up To 15 High School Elective Credits Per Semester.

PLUS Free College Credits at Local Community Colleges.

Graphics Students Learn...

Design and Layout Skills

Computer Design Programs

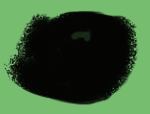

Pre-Press Technology

Printing Press Operation

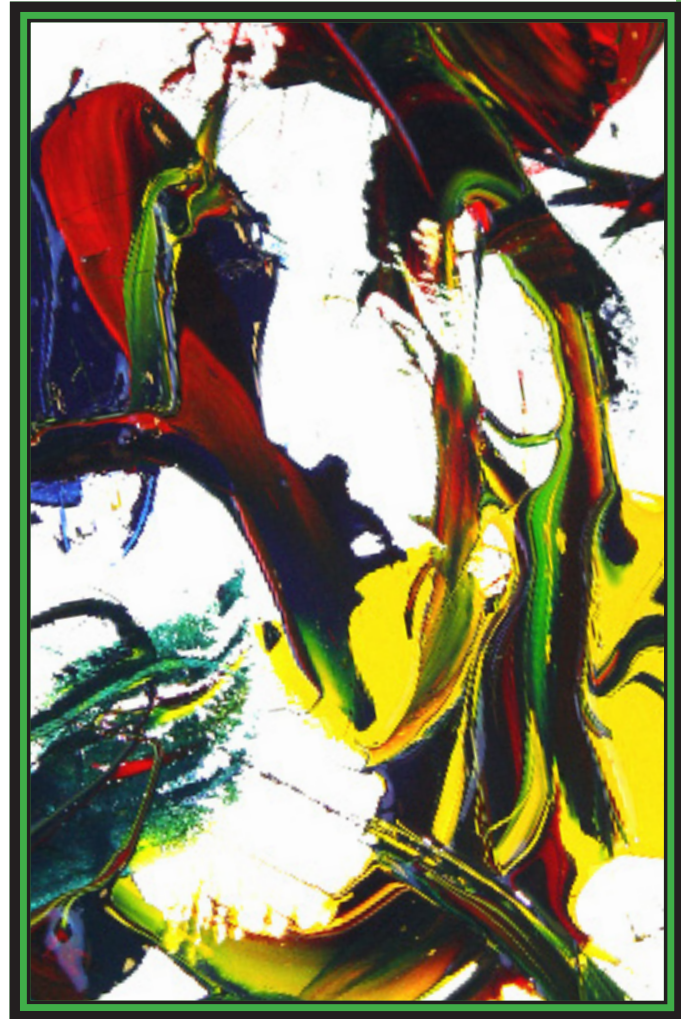

Bindery and Finishing Operations

Customer Service Skills

Job Interview Skills

Develop your art interests and talents for a successful career in Graphic Communications. This program emphasizes quality production of artwork and printed materials using state-of-the-art digital technology.

Join us on the path to Creative Career Opportunities!

Skills Needed to Succeed in this program . . .

- Ability to complete projects with fine detail
- Ability to take responsibility and meet deadlines
- Ability to complete hands-on projects
- Ability to follow instructions and operate machinery safely
- Basic math is helpful.
- Writing skills are helpful.

Interested? Contact your high school counselor or call Boulder CTEC at 720-561-5220.