

WORLD CLASS MUSIC PERFORMANCE
Comes to Broomfield High School AGAIN!

Broomfield High School Orchestra has engaged Edgar Meyer and Mike Marshall to headline a benefit concert on April 17, 2010. Our past benefit concerts have been a wonderful experience all around. “This was a GREAT event for the Broomfield Community!” and “Broomfield could use more events like this. We had a good time!” were some of the comments we got after previous shows. Once again BHS is able to offer the community another evening with world renowned musicians while providing a special educational opportunity for our students.

The Broomfield High School Orchestra presents the 2010 Benefit

Mr. Meyer and Mr. Marshall will be conducting a lecture/demonstration prior to the concert at approximately 2 pm. This educational event is free and open to the general public. Tickets for the concert are not required to attend the lecture/demo. The concert is also open to the general public and promises to be much more than “just a classical concert.” Edgar Meyer and Mike Marshall are world class acoustic musicians who put on an outstanding show! Our BHS Symphony Orchestra will also perform several selections. Proceeds will benefit the BHS Orchestra Instrument and Activities Fund.

BHS students set high standards of performance in all of the athletics and other activities that they participate in and the music programs are no exception. If you have never attended a BHS music event, this would be a great place to start!
