ADL Calendars	2-Dec ADL Grant	District and School Goals: Diversity &amp; Anti-Bullying Mary Groote Admin. Assistant ADL Mtn States Region 1120 Lincoln St., St. 1301 Denver, CO 80203 303-830-7177 ext. 214 mgroote@adl.org	369 copies for student families & staff were shipped to office and inserted in Friday folders. Distributed last year to families only. Was well received. The increasingly pluralistic population of the United States creates diverse communities, student bodies and employees. To enhance mutual understanding and respect among the various religious, ethnic and cultural groups, the Anti-Defamation League offers a Calendar of Observances as a tool to increase awareness and sensitivity about religious obligations as well as ethnic and cultural festivities that may affect students, colleagues and neighbors.

Imagination Makers	2-Dec 725 $215 SCFD Grant	District &amp; School Wide Goals: Diversity. Also supports topics covered in One Book One Douglass program. Paula Miller	"OUR BEST STORIES" Literacy and Diversity Themes--Have you ever played in a football game where you ran the wrong way with the ball, slipped and had your shoe come off, and tackled your own teammate? One boy's good-hearted look at his misadventures is among the 14 true stories and 6 songs in Our Best Stories. Written by kids of different racial, socioeconomic and geographic backgrounds, this play includes amusing tales of snowboarding, a 'polar dip', and an adventurous Halloween night. There are also stories relating the moving experiences of a girl living in a homeless shelter, and one who became disabled from a childhood bout with cancer. Two bilingual kid-authors wrote stories utilizing both English and Spanish.
---------------------------	----------------------------	---	--

Disney Radio Pet Care Assembly	6-Jan - Disney Grant	School Wide Goal: Anti-Bullying Paula Miller	Optional Assembly. Supposed to be a high quality, professional show. Radio Disney and Banfield Pet Hospitals have teamed up to create an interactive and educational assembly for schools. The "Future Vet" Assembly is approximately 30 minutes and will entertain, educate and engage students on pet safety for grades 1 – 5 and can be hosted in either an auditorium, cafeteria, or gymnasium. The assembly is an interactive "Game Show" which will be hosted by Radio Disney and quiz kids knowledge on pet safety, care and well being.

1. Is there another program you would like me to research for you?
2. I know this years' mini grant was used to replace some books. Do you want the other $169 to continue the replacement process?
3. What about a cheap flip camera for kids to take videos?
4. The Zoo has mini-classes for up to 30 students. They come to you and cost $75. You could do two class. Here is a link that shows the options and which curriculum standards they meet:
  - a. <http://www.denverzoo.org/education/miniclasses.asp>
5. Raptors are available from a few organizations if you have any interest.
6. CU Natural History Museum has several boxes that rent for $10 per week. Here is the link: <http://cumuseum.colorado.edu/Education/diskits.html>
7. Are you interested in my pursuing some other free, donated, or low cost items that would enhance curriculum? Examples include:
  - a. Costumes or props for particular areas of study. Want me to dig up some Civil War costumes?
  - b. Any food item you are interested in having me try to find for the kids?
  - c. Finding someone to come in and talk about a particular aspect of the curriculum. Maybe a Freedom Rider during the civil rights unit? I saw an article in the Camera recently with interviews of some Boulder residents who were Freedom Riders.
