

2010 Summer Camps

Parents/guardians are responsible for thoroughly checking out any activity for safety and appropriateness before using with children. Inclusion on this list does not suggest or denote a recommendation or endorsement of any kind. This list is not comprehensive and other summer programs and activities are also available.

NATIONAL

Center for Talented Youth: (Various Locations across US)

CTY's summer programs offer eligible students in the U.S. and around the world the opportunity to engage in challenging academic work with peers who share their exceptional abilities and love of learning. While the focus is on rigorous academics and learning, the social experience that results from bringing these students together is an integral part of the program.

Concordia: (Various Locations across the world)

Concordia Summer Villages are a powerful combination of world language immersion, new cultural experiences and summer camp fun with more than 150 sessions to choose from, at leased retreat centers and summer camps, Concordia Summer Villages welcome you.

Idyllwild: (Southern California)

Every summer, more than 1,300 children, teens, and adults attend Idyllwild's workshops, pursuing interests in creative writing, dance, music, theatre, and visual arts— taught by some of America's finest artists.

PROMYS: (Boston University)

A six-week summer program at Boston University designed to encourage motivated high school students to explore the creative world of mathematics in a supportive community of peers, counselors, research mathematicians, and visiting scientists.

ROSS: (Ohio State University) The Ross Program at The Ohio State University is an intensive eight week summer experience designed to encourage motivated pre-college students to explore mathematics, immersing them in a world of mathematical discovery.

Satori: (Eastern Washington University)

For academically and intellectually talented students aged 12 - 18, Satori is a one-week journey towards personal enlightenment through specialized instruction and social activities with others who share their enthusiasm for learning in an academic and social environment. For its twenty-sixth straight summer Satori Camp is proud to present this opportunity for students to experience their first taste of college.

SIG: (Various Locations across US)

SIG provides academically advanced students with an interesting and challenging educational experience, combining academic courses with cultural, social, and recreational activities.

THINK: (University of Nevada, Reno)

The THINK Summer Institute is an intense three-week residential summer program offering gifted students aged 13 to 16 the opportunity to earn six transferable college credits.
