

Perspective:

Human beings are born without prejudice. All forms of bias, from extreme bigotry to unaware cultural biases, are acquired-actually imposed on the young person.