The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 prohibits the school your child last attended from releasing education records or personally identifiable information contained therein to an official of the Boulder Valley School District school in which your child seeks or intends to enroll without notifying you of the following:

- That the school your child last attended intends to transfer your child's records;
- That you may have the right to inspect these records;
- That you may have a copy of these records if you wish to pay the cost of duplication;
- That you may challenge the content of the records.

Your signature below will authorize the release and enable officials of the School District to obtain the necessary educational records from the school last attended by your child.
